ABOUT

[Hey, I am Polly]

I'm a 20 y.o web designer based in Ottawa, Canada. I am passionate about transmitting ideas and messages through various design media. Graduated from fine-arts school, I started to combine classical artistic techniques with brand-new approaches. Over the past couple of years, I have completed various web design projects and collaborated with multiple clients. Now I'm working as a freelance designer and looking for the creative studio to join.
